

PRIVACY POLICY

Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) generally prohibits any financial institution, directly or through its affiliates, from sharing nonpublic personal information about you with a nonaffiliated third party unless the institution provides you with a notice of its privacy policies and practices, such as the type of information that it collects about you and the categories of persons or entities to which it may be disclosed. In compliance with the GLBA, we are providing you with this document, which notifies you of the privacy policies and practices of Page, Scrantom, Sprouse, Tucker & Ford, P.C.

In the course of representing you or other clients we represent, we may collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you such as on applications or other forms.
- Information about your transactions we secure from our files, or from others.
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.
- Information that we receive from others involved in your transaction, such as the real estate agent or lender.
- Information that we receive from third parties in the course of providing legal services to our client.
Financial service providers such as companies engaged in banking, consumer finance, securities and insurance.

Unless it is specifically stated otherwise in an amended Privacy Policy Notice, no additional nonpublic personal information will be collected about you.

We may disclose any of the above information that we collect about you to third parties in the course or representing our clients as permitted by law.

We also may disclose this information about you to the following types of nonaffiliated companies that perform services on our behalf:

- Financial service providers such as companies engaged in banking, consumer finance, securities and insurance.
- Non-financial companies such as title examiners, title insurance companies and other service providers as is necessary in the course of providing legal services.

WE DO NOT DISCLOSE ANY NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU WITH ANYONE FOR ANY PURPOSE THAT IS NOT SPECIFICALLY PERMITTED BY LAW.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information in the course of representing our clients. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
